STATUS 'N' SUCCESS A PROGRAM FOR WOMEN

DAYTON, Ohio, January 29, 1982 -- Women are changing: changing to meet the challenges of today's complex society and to assume new roles in the work force, in the community, and in the marketplace. Modern women are striving to achieve a delicate balance between their success in the home and in the world outside.

To help women meet this challenge, the University of Dayton Home Economics Department in conjunction with the UD College of Arts and Sciences' Office of Continuing Education is sponsoring a workshop for women entitled, "Status 'N' Success."

The workshop will be offered on two dates: Saturday, February 13 and Saturday, March 13, from 9:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. All sessions will be held in the Kennedy Union. A registration fee of $35 covers all costs of the workshop, including lunch and morning coffee and doughnuts.

Workshop sessions will deal with questions related to the roles women must play in the working world of 9 to 5 and the social world of 5 to 9. Participants will also discuss their roles as consumers, as volunteers, and as decision-makers.

Guest speakers include Francine Margulis, interior designer; Robyn Sherritt, a professional in the area of image-making and dressing for success; Barbara DeLuca, UD professor of home economics; and Mary Ruffolo, UD professor of social work. George Zimmerman, also from the University of Dayton, will present a musicale performance during lunch.

For more information on the workshop, contact James P. Farrelly (229-3728 or 229-3428) or Julia Palmert (229-2711) at the University of Dayton.
